, and the second	The grant-making department manages the solicitation, review and award of grants to applicant organizations. The grant-making department requires documentation of exempt or tribal government status, a budget and narrative of the grantee's proposal and other relevant information. A First Nations committee reviews applications for consistency with First Nations' program objectives and other factors. Terms and conditions of each grant are documented and signed both by First Nations and the grantee. The terms and conditions require programmatic and financial reports from the grantee. The grant-making department monitors compliance with grant terms and conditions, including timely receipt of required reports. Normally grant funds are disbursed in multiple payments. Initial payment follows receipt of signed terms and conditions, and subsequent payments are held until required reports are received, often halfway through and at the end of the grant period.
